Clarification regarding news item on confiscation of shipment at Continental Warehousing Corporation (Nhava Sheva) Ltd

Mumbai November 18, 2011: This is to inform that in connection to certain news item appearing today in certain section of press concerning Arshiya International, we wish to clarify that it has been wrongly reported that the said cargo is of Arshiya. This is absolutely baseless and factually incorrect. Arshiya is in no way remotely involved with the alleged cargo. This is a case of mistaken identity wherein the actual Customs House Agent (CHA) is apparently (we are told) International Cargo Corporation. Arshiya in fact does not even have a CHA license.

In the matter reported, it is clarified that the confiscation by the Special Investigation & Intelligence Branch (SIIB), Nhava Sheva has taken place at a Container Freight Station (CFS). Arshiya does not own any CFS.

It is clarified that Arshiya International has not been involved and no government investigation authority has contacted or alleged Arshiya in this connection.
